Northeastern offers more than 40 undergraduate degree and certificate programs, with classes on weekdays, evenings, weekends, and online. Small class sizes allow for students to pursue a more personal academic experience in one of the most ethnically diverse universities in the nation.

Human Resource Development Program Description

The Human Resource Development (HRD) Program prepares professionals who will be responsible for the training, education, and development of adults, in settings such as business, industry, health care, social services, and government. Students in the program will be provided opportunities to develop the knowledge and competencies necessary to meet the increasing needs that organizations have for HRD professionals.
