Math, Science and Technology for Quality Education (MSTQE) Program Description

The MSTQE (Math, Science and Technology for Quality Education) program is a “Bridge” program with City Colleges of Chicago in which faculty and students from the City Colleges and Northeastern Illinois University teach and study together. Students at all City Colleges of Chicago campuses are eligible for the program with registering at Wright College or Truman College. The goal of the Consortium is to reduce cost and speed time to graduation for City College students while creating a pipeline to increase the diversity of individuals who become effective teachers of math, science and technology at the elementary and middle school level and/or in special education, and bilingual education.

Students are encouraged to begin the MSTQE minor while working on the general education requirements and prior to applying to the College of Education. Students can complete most of the 100 and 200 level courses in the minor while still registered at City Colleges. Courses in the minor fulfill many of the general education and foundations course that meet the requirements of the College of Education as well applying toward an Associate’s Degree at the City Colleges of Chicago.

The suggested combined double major of Elementary Education (ELED) and Middle Level Education (MLED) consists of 56 hours in professional courses, which are divided into 5 blocks. The Math and Science Concepts minor is an essential part of the program and consists of 47 hrs of math and science courses designed specifically for the MSTQE program. Students who complete this program qualify for the Illinois Professional Educators’ License, the state endorsements in elementary school teaching (K-5), in middle school teaching (grades 6-8) as well as the state endorsements in middle school math, middle school science and language arts. As an MSTQE student, you also have the option to complete the Math and Science Concepts minor along with an Elementary Education major, Bilingual/Bicultural Education major, or Special Education major instead of the suggested ELED/MLED double major. Graduates have the credentials in the contents schools are hiring.
