Bachelor of Arts in Justice Studies

Available at:
NEIU Main Campus (Chicago, IL)

Justice Studies Program Description

The Bachelor of Arts degree in Justice Studies prepares students for human and social service work, research or advocacy positions, law school or graduate school. Criminal justice practitioners who wish to develop a comprehensive understanding of social justice and social policy will find the program well-suited to their needs. The Justice Studies department also offers minors in Social Justice and Criminology. These minor programs are optional and could be taken as a complement to any major at Northeastern.
